- Spiritual Gifts of Christianity
- Service in Christianity

The Spiritual Power of Christianity

- Different from what came before
- Life of holiness, peace, and communion with God
- Continued to the maximum resurrection
- Best possible relationship between God and man
- No philosophy could renew and conquer the world as the Christianity did and is still doing by the Holy Gospel

The individual

- Change life usually starts internally → in the heart
- Renewal toward the perfection
- Daily communion with the Lord Jesus Christ
- Role models for virtues which were not know before
  - Meekness
  - Humility
  - Love of one's enemies
- Light and salt for the world → showing His light
- Non-written Gospel or you can say a living Gospel!

Women

- Christianity honored women → unlike Judaism and paganism
- Woman inherited salvation just as men (1 Peter 3:7 and Galatians 3:28)
- Virgin St. Mary is the point of change in woman's history
  - Attributed to her giving birth to Jesus Christ → 2nd Adam
- Gospel presented many women with holy lives:
  - Mary Magdalene
  - Salome, the mother of James and John
  - Mary and Martha, Lazarus' sisters
  - St. Mary the mother of St. Mark the Apostle (Acts 12:12) → Upper Room during the Last Supper and the Pentecost
  - those who followed the Lord Jesus Christ to the Holy Cross (Luke 24:1-10)

Marriage

- Divine Sacrament → not human development (Matthew 19:4-6)
- Monogamy the Godly ideal → rejects polygamy
- Each member had responsibilities and rights
- Man-woman union = Christ-Church union (Ephesians 5:28-33)
- Aquila and Priscilla were good examples (Acts 18:2, 26)
  - Helped St. Paul's ministry and home became a church
- Children-parent relationship agape love → not authority or violence like Romans
- Church prohibited divorce except for marital immorality

Marriage

- One of the issues → mixed marriage
- 1 partner being Christian and the other being Jew or pagan
- Christian partner might think their marriage wasn't holy according to the Bible
- However, the Church allowed it and considered it holy
- BUT the same time it was not allowed for any Christians to initiate a mixed marriage
- Excommunicated any Christian who began a new mixed marriage
  - (1 Corinthians 7:12-14, 7:39 and 1 Peter 3:1)

Marriage

- With the married state, The single also as an exception to the rule is considered by the Gospel to the service of the Kingdom of God.
- St. Paul praised the life of virginity (1 Corinthians 7:1-38)
- Examples: St. John the Baptist , Apostle John, Apostle Paul and Barnabas.
- Reasons:
  - St. John revealed about the rank of the virgin in the heavenly Jerusalem (Revelation 14:1-5)
  - Virgins to sit in the first rows in the Church before other believers

Society

- Christianity called for Agape love for all people
- Regardless of geographical or physical boundaries
- Removing the barriers between different races Jews, Romans, Gentiles, Greeks, and Barbarians as all nations are created from one (Acts 17:26)
- Universal spirit so all believers are one heart and one soul (Acts 4:32)
